DAVID BALDACCI ABOUT | David Baldacci

David Baldacci has been writing since childhood, when his mother gave him a lined notebook in which to write down his stories. (Much later, when David thanked her for being the spark that ignited his writing career, she revealed that she'd given him the notebook to keep him quiet, because every mom needs a break now and then.) David published his first novel, Absolute Power, in 1996.

Absolute Power follows the abuse of power of the Office of the President when it comes to cover-ups, and the lengths the Secret Service will go to in order to protect their charge. One mistake leads to another and another, and of course, a witness to murder is the biggest mistake of all. Staff members, agents, lawyers, and creative police work make this novel a page turner that is hard to put
