Atlas of Remote Islands is Judith Schalansky's purely East-European, formerly Communist-country travelogue. She was born in 1980, in East Germany, and by the time she discovered the joy of traveling--like many of us, as a child--she had to learn that traveling beyond the Iron Curtain was merely possible through one's imagination. Hence, the subtitle: fifty islands I have not visited and never will.

Judith Schalansky's wonderful book Atlas of Remote Islands, 50 Islands I Have Never Set Foot on and Never Will is the inspiration for this developing series of images. In the book, Schalansky provides lovely, poetic accounts of 50 remote islands around the world, paired with a map of each island. The book instantly captured my imagination - I've had a fascination with castaway stories and uninhabited islands since I was a kid.
