The striking feature of Harris' 'Cannibals and Kings' in my opinion was how easy the author was able to deliver the information to the reader. Without previous experience in anthropology, I was able to understand the concepts he has laid out and the reasoning behind them. The impact that ecology has had on our development and our future is shown in this work, we must know where we have come. A summary of Cannibals and Kings by Marvin Harris, chapter ...

Cannibals and Kings is an anthropology book by Marvin Harris aimed at a popular audience. Since I'm trying to read this for education rather than entertainment, I'm not reviewing it in the usual way, but instead I'm trying to understand what it is arguing for.
