Review of "Come Closer" by Sara Gran | Midnight Author

Review of Come Closer by Sara Gran November 4, 2018 December 22, 2018 Christopher Warren It's no secret that, when executed well, I love demonic possession stories.

Come Closer by Sara Gran - Goodreads

Come Closer is a demon possession story and a story of a disintegrating marriage, kicked off on Valentine's Day, no less, with a certain lack of intimacy and trust between husband and wife (Amanda) after six years of marriage. Gran manages to write a creepy and humorous story in the beginning, but the second half wasn't quite as interesting, except to sort of finish what she (Gran, Amanda

Tread Come Closer on the train, in a snowstorm, on a cold December night. It was the right atmosphere for this perfectly noirish tale of madness and love. Author Sara Gran writes with scalpel-like clarity, expertly blending tones to create a new kind of psychological thriller. I loved this book. Days after finishing it, it has not left my mind.

REVIEW - Come Closer by Sara Gran - That's What She Read

Surprisingly difficult to find, Come Closer is delightfully creepy, engaging, extremely well-written, and surprisingly humorous. One would not think that the descent into madness could be funny, but Ms. Gran confirms that a story can be horrifying and funny at the same time. It is a combination that works well, making

COME CLOSER by Sara Gran | Kirkus Reviews

In a decidedly creepy departure from her debut (Saturn's Return to New York, 2001: a charmer about mothers and daughters in literary New York), Gran tells of a young woman possessed by a demon.

Come Closer by Sara Gran You're Killing Us

Come Closer is a pretty standard demon-possession story featuring unremarkable characters doing fairly mundane things as far as demon-possession narratives go, but in spite or perhaps because of that, I found it pretty engrossing. It helps that it's short slightly more than a hundred pages, and cut into bite-size chunks and it also helps that it's one of the few demon

Come Closer by Sara Gran, Paperback | Barnes & Noble

Sara Gran's Come Closer-- a categorically creepy novel about a young architect named Amanda whose life spirals out of control as she loses possession of her body and mind to a demon -- is comparable to horror classics like Ira Levin's Rosemary's Baby (1967) and William Peter Blatty's The Exorcist (1971).
