Individual and Corporate Social Responsibility by Roland ...

Society's demands for individual and corporate social responsibility as an alternative response to market and distributive failures are becoming increasingly prominent. We first draw on recent developments in the "psychology and economics" of prosocial behavior to shed light on this trend, which

What is the difference between a nonprofit and CSR? - Quora

CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility) is not an organization, it's programs or initiatives that a company (most often in the private sector) implements to demonstrate that they operate responsibly with consideration for the well-being of people and the environment.
