Dark Summer Dreams had a slow start. And by slow, I mean really slow. It took me days to get through the first quarter of the novel. It was all building up to the interesting parts, I guess, but it was pretty difficult for me to get through. This in itself was a shock because the previous novel started rolling from the beginning. About half-way through, things started picking up. Then it was Dark Summer Dreams \(Dreamwalkers Book 2\) - amazon.com

Dark Summer Dreams wasn't the best novel that I've read. It wasn't horrible, but I had problems getting into the plot; so much to where I had to pick up a new book. It left me feeling frustrated with the characters and almost lack of substance. Nonetheless, it wasn't a bad story. Hopefully the next one will be better.
