Deep in the Heart of Trouble by Deeanne Gist - Goodreads
After reading Redeeming Love by Francine Rivers, I decided to try out a genre I had previously avoided at all cost, Christian romance. My book searching on Amazon led me to Deeanne Gist, and Deep in the Heart of Trouble seemed like a promising first try.

Deep in the Heart of Trouble: Deeanne Gist, Danielle ... I picked up "Deep in the Heart of Trouble", Gist's fourth novel and the sequel to "Courting Trouble" simply because I believe in Gist as an author, and I didn't want to let the little fact that I am not a fan of her character keep me from enjoying her latest work. I was so pleasantly surprised to find that in the four years that had passed in the storyline between the two books, Essie grew up.

Deep in the Heart of Trouble by Deeanne Gist | NOOK Book ...

Deep in the Heart of Trouble by Deeanne Gist is the sequel to Courting Trouble and I admit, of the two books, I liked this one better. The plot was filled with romance and at the same time had characters that challenged the reader to grow closer to God. I certainly admired Essie's dedication to God and her understanding that her worth came from God - not a man. She found contentment and was Deep in the Heart of Trouble Audiobook | Deeanne Gist ...

Read Courting Trouble First I usually give low star reviews for books that seem incomplete.
