Stone Cold by John Francome - Goodreads

Stone Cold is a really good horse racing mystery. The excellent plot is well written and fast-paced with plenty twists and turns. Most of the character descriptions lack depth though; they seem somewhat secondary to the story.

John Francome - Book Series In Order

In Stone Cold, there are certain individuals that do not want the horse that she is riding to win. Naturally, being the hero, Connor does win the race but, as is the way of these kinds of stories, she is disqualified; the weight cloth on her horse has been tampered with. Cue the inevitable disbelief and an indignant trainer accusing Kelly of incompetence at best, throwing the race at worst.
