recent developments in EU State aid law; economic justifications for State aid. A critical assessment of the Commission's State aid action plan by the German Monopolies Commission is appended in English. Applying law and economics theory to competition law, this book shows that the more economic approach is exerting a considerable impact on various sectors of competition law. The authors clearly demonstrate the progress that can be made when lawyers and economists take notice of and

During the last decade the European Commission has progressively adopted what is called a 'more economic' approach towards competition policy. This approach, which draws on US antitrust policy, puts greater emphasis on possible welfare effects of business practices and is less concerned with competitive market structures. Under this school of thought, concentration cannot be said to impede effective competition to the extent that efficiency gains outweigh market distortions.
