The Cloud Pavilion \(Sano Ichiro, #14\) by Laura Joh Rowland

"The Cloud Pavilion" by Laura Joh Rowland is a historical mystery novel that is set in seventeenth century feudal Japan in the Genroku period. Chamberlain Sano Ichiro is one of the two lead investigators working at the behest of the Shogun to solve all manner of crimes within and against his empire. Sano, together with the main antagonist,

In "The Cloud Pavilion" I can see Rowland struggling with her characters to try to bring the series back into the realm of believability. However in doing so she sheds what makes historical fiction so interesting of a read, the in depth descriptions of life in Edo and feudal Japan and the cast of characters that go along with it. In "Pavilion" most of the characters are the same worn ones that

The Cloud Pavilion About book: It was popular in springtime, when the trees were in flower and the people of Edo flocked to picnic in the pavilions, drink in the teahouses along the path, float in pleasure boats on the river, and admire the pink blossoms. But today the blossoms were long gone, the pavilions empty, the sky threatening more rain.
