Book Review: The Mighty Crashman by Jerry Spinelli
- Read ...

The Mighty Crashman is my first Jerry Spinelli novel (although I do have one of the Stargirl books on my shelf), and I must say that I was pleasantly surprised. Spinelli manages to pack so much into such a slender volume, and does so without it feeling overlaid or messy. Though the novels written in the ubiquitous first person present tense, it avoids falling into the trap of lengthy chunks

The Mighty Crashman will appeal to both boys and girls, and although the tale is short and simple, the underlying emotional truths will make it a satisfying read for children from about seven right up to the last years at primary school and even into the early years of secondary.
