Your Digital Afterlife: An Interview with John Romano and ...

John Romano and Evan Carroll: Our interest in this subject started independently, and it wasn't until 2008 that chance brought us together. In 2001 two events happened in John's life: His son was born and his grandfather passed away. He started to consider how different his digital life was compared to that of his grandfather and felt a need to make sure things were in order for his family.
